Reading, Writing, and Social Studies Lessons for March 23-27

These assignments can be done in any order on any day. As long as they all get completed by the end of the week.

Reading:
1. Assigned lessons on iReady: Please complete one lesson per day. https://login.i-ready.com/
   - There are 5 iReady reading lessons for the week. Complete the lesson and quiz for each.
2. Watch the video for our read aloud with the book Pink and Say. PDF of the book is available here.
   Write down your answers to the questions throughout the story. When the story is finished, choose TWO of the following activities to complete by the end of the week. Send pictures/documents of activities to Mrs. Shrum when finished.
   - Choice 1: Illustrate your favorite scene from the book, and write a few sentences explaining why it’s your favorite. Include color and lots in details in your illustration.
   - Choice 2: Imagine you were the character, Say, in the story. Write a journal entry about your experiences with Pink and Moe Moe Bay. Use details from the story to support your writing.
   - Choice 3: Create a glossary using SIX NEW words from the book. Make sure you write down the new word and the meaning. You can look up the meaning on www.dictionary.com to determine the actual meaning.
   - Choice 4: Write a summary of the story. Make sure you include what’s important from the beginning, middle, and end. Focus on WHO the story is about and WHAT we learn about them that’s important. This should be no more than one paragraph.
   - Choice 5: What is a theme of this story? Write down the theme of the story, and include details from the story to support your thinking.
   - Choice 6: Create a quiz about the story. Create 5 questions (multiple choice/true or false/ fill in the blank/ matching/short answer). You must also have an answer key included.
3. Read for 20 minutes a day and fill out Read 20 log.

Optional: Respond to your daily reading.
   - Write a summary about what you have read this week.
   - Draw a picture of your favorite scene in the book, and write why.
   - Describe and illustrate the main character. What do you like about the main character? Dislike?
     - If you complete these, send pictures of them to your reading teachers! We’d love to see them!

Writing: (Choose one to complete for the week.)
1. Practice essay writing using the following prompts: Complete on notebook paper.
   - Opinion: In your opinion, what is the best animal to have as a pet? You must include three reasons why. This should be a multiparagraph essay.
   - Informational: Write an informational essay explaining about a time in American History. Explain who was involved and why that event was important in our history. Possible events to explain: Revolutionary War, Civil War, Westward Expansion. This should be a multiparagraph essay.
   - Narrative: Imagine you could travel back in time to live through one event from history. Describe the event and write about your experience. Write a multi paragraph story.
   - Optional: Choose a prompt (or more) from this website to practice.
Social Studies: Watch one video per day and jot down something you learned from each video.

Youtube: Mr. Betts Class videos
- Pilgrims, Civil War Review, Causes of the American Revolution, French and Indian War,
- Moving to the Colonies, (and anything we have learned in Social Studies this year)

Brainpop videos
- The following videos are great on Brainpop: Civil War, Westward Expansion, Revolutionary War
  - Optional: Take the quizzes at the end of the videos for fun to check your comprehension.
  - Many of the videos on Brainpop also have activities that you can do with them as well.

SO.... What is due by March 27 for Mrs. Shrum's class? Take pictures of assignments and send to Mrs. Shrum through Class Dojo or email shrum_h@hcde.org. Or, students can type their assignments and they can email me.

5 completed iReady lessons and quiz
Answers from the Pink and Say video questions
2 activities from the Pink and Say book
1 essay (narrative, informational, OR opinion)
  - If you write the essay, please have a parent email me a picture of your essay.
  - If you type the essay, please have a parent email me the essay.
Social Studies video responses: Write down which videos you've watched and something you learned from each of them.